

Side events programme

Wednesday 27 November

18.15-19.00	Tom Rossiter and Marko Sjekloca Succorfish	Overview of challenges facing small-scale UK and Irish fishermen and the steps being taken to secure their long-term future. Presentation and open discussion with audience	Conference room
17.30-18.00	CIHEAM Bari	Fish, Bread and Vinegar* Video on traditional preserved fish recipes of the Salento region	CIHEAM stand
18.00-18.30	CIHEAM Bari	How can the activities of an artisanal fisher be diversified?* Demonstration on how the ability to bind and weave ropes becomes real art to be used for other purposes (hammocks, accessories, decorations)	CIHEAM stand
18.30-19.00	CIHEAM Bari	CIHEAM-Pesca Libano* A model of intervention. Presentation of the first results and perspectives	CIHEAM stand
19.00-19.30	CIHEAM Bari	Transformation and conservation of fish* Traditional recipes of the Salento region. Story of their origin and preparation modes	CIHEAM stand

* Event subject to pre-inscription at the CIHEAM stand - Max 20 persons

Thursday 28 November

18.00-18.30	Nenad Hercigonja Primark	Specifics and solutions for small-scale fisheries monitoring, control and surveillance (MCS) Presentation	Conference room
18.30-19.15	Mohamed NAJI	Les aires marines protégées (AMP) aux fins de pêche Documentaire sur la mise en place de trois AMP pilotes au Maroc	Conference room
17.30-18.00	CIHEAM Bari	The fishery of Rocco* Video story: a day of a small-scale fisherman who has diversified its activities	CIHEAM stand
18.00-18.30	CIHEAM Bari	How can the activities of an artisanal fisher be diversified?* Demonstration on how the ability to bind and weave ropes becomes real art to be used for other purposes (hammocks, accessories, decorations)	CIHEAM stand
18.30-19.00	CIHEAM Bari	New and/or alternative economic opportunities to support or convert small scale fisheries* Presentation by the European Federation of Sea Anglers and Apulia Sport Fishing with CIHEAM-IAMB	CIHEAM stand
20.00-23.00		Official Dinner offered by the Government of Malta at the Malta National Aquarium Buffet menu followed by visit of the aquarium Confirmation of attendance required

* Event subject to pre-inscription at the CIHEAM stand - Max 20 persons

Friday 29 November

18.30-19.30	Serge Collet Maritime archaeo-anthropologist	Near shore marine affordance's appropriation in Mediterranean: An amazing long duration and Mediterranean coastal fishing communities facing the alterations of the marine ecosystem Documentary and presentation	Conference room
17.30-18.00	CIHEAM Bari and Magna Grecia Mare	The Eco-museum of the Port of Tricase (Salento, Italy)* The "Magna Grecia Mare" project. Video on the life and activities of a diffused museum in a small fishing community	CIHEAM stand
18.00-18.30	Pierre Girard and Etienne Klein CLS	Modular platforms for small-scale fishing monitoring solutions and various range of data collecting tools Presentation	Conference room
18.00-18.30	CIHEAM Bari	How can the activities of an artisanal fisher be diversified?* Demonstration on how the ability to bind and weave ropes becomes real art to be used for other purposes (hammocks, accessories, decorations)	CIHEAM stand
18.30-19.00	CIHEAM Bari and Magna Grecia Mare	Magna Grecia Mare Project* Ports museum, a best practice for the enhancement of the costal heritage and maritime culture A sea of dialogues* Dialogue between Mediterranean countries for the integrated development of territories and coastal communities and their local products	CIHEAM stand

* Event subject to pre-inscription at the CIHEAM stand - Max 20 persons

19.00-19.30	CIHEAM Bari	Transformation and conservation of fish* Traditional recipes of the Salento region. Story of their origin and preparation modes	CIHEAM stand
-------------	-------------	--	--------------

Saturday 30 November

	Visit to the Marsaxlokk Port/Fort San Lucjan
09.00	Departure from the hotel
09.30-11.00	Visit to the Malta Aquaculture Research Centre, Fort San Lucjan
11.00-12.00	Walk down to the fishing village accompanied by officers of the Department of Fisheries & Aquaculture, Ministry for Sustainable Dev., Environment and Climate Change
12.00-13.00	Free time
13.00	Departure to the hotel

Stands at the Symposium

- AquaBioTech Group
- CIHEAM/Magna Grecia Mare
- CLS – Collecte Localisation Satellites
- FAO regional projects and Fisheries Department
- General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean
- Maltese Ministry for Sustainable Development, Environment and Climate Change - Parliamentary Secretariat for Agriculture, Fisheries and Animal Rights
- Primark
- Succorfish

* Event subject to pre-inscription at the CIHEAM stand - Max 20 persons

